

MISS JOAN RANDAZZO

. . . thirteen-year-old brown-eyed, brown-tressed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Randazzo of Clayton, Missouri, who recently became the owner of the stake-winning mare Hildegarde, and as a result is the envy of many of her peers. With Hildegarde in 1948, she no doubt will garner many high honors, for Joan has the ability and the "know-how" of handling a mare of such great ability. Student at Villa Duschesne, Joan likes all sports, with riding and showing at the top of the list. The fact that the boys and girls with whom she competes actually want her to win, attests to her popularity with the Under-21 Group, and to their good sportsmanship.

